IMPORTANT: What You Need to Bring

PASSPORTS FOR EVERYONE IN YOUR BOAT - Half Moon Island is in the United States, so valid passports are required for all passengers, including children.

Getting to the Picnic

1. Load your boat with everyone attending and ensure all passengers have their passports
2. Drive your boat directly to Half Moon Island on East Grand Lake
3. Meet the US Border Agent who will be stationed on-site at the island
4. Present all passports to the US Border Agent for review and check-in
5. Enjoy the picnic!

CRITICAL: You MUST check back into Canada or risk illegal entry charges!

Leaving the Picnic - MANDATORY STEP

1. Drive your boat to the Canadian Border Dock (located just before the bridge on the Canadian side of the Orient/Fosterville border crossing)
2. Have ONE person go to the border office with ALL passports from your group
3. Check in with Canadian Border Services - they are aware of the picnic and expecting attendees
4. Complete your check-in before heading home

Important Reminders:

- Bring passports for everyone
- Check in with US Border Agent at the island
- Check back in with Canadian Border Services upon leaving the Island

Have a wonderful time at the CLIC Annual Picnic! The organizers look forward to seeing you on Half Moon Island for this special cross-border community event.
